Announcing online management solutions for Body Corporate Communities

With community intranet implementations across Australia, and clients such as Delfin Lend Lease, Urban Pacific and Multiplex, Keyvision's community intranets have provided developers with an efficient and cost effective online resource which turn estate developments into vibrant social communities.

Keyvision have now developed an online community engagement and management solution for Body Corporate communities. NOW, community managers can provide residents with fast and simple-to-access information via a custom designed community website specifically developed for the needs of Body Corporate managers.
